

LYRA THERAPEUTICS, INC.

NOMINATING AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE CHARTER

A. PURPOSE

The purpose of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Lyra Therapeutics, Inc. (the “Company”) is to:

- recommend to the Board the persons to be nominated for election as directors at any meeting of stockholders and the persons (if any) to be elected by the Board to fill any vacancies on the Board;
- recommend to the Board the directors to be appointed to each committee of the Board;
- develop and recommend to the Board corporate governance guidelines; and
- oversee the evaluation of the Board.

B. STRUCTURE AND MEMBERSHIP

1. Number. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall consist of such number of directors as the Board shall from time to time determine.
2. Independence. Except as otherwise permitted by applicable Nasdaq rules, each member of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall be an “independent director” as defined by Nasdaq Rule 5605(a)(2).
3. Chair. Unless the Board elects a Chair of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, the Committee shall elect a Chair by majority vote.
4. Compensation. The compensation of Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee members shall be as determined by the Board.
5. Selection and Removal. Members of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall be appointed by the Board. The Board may remove members of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee from such Committee, with or without cause.
6. Rules and Procedures. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee has the authority to establish its own rules and procedures for notice and conduct of its meetings so long as they are not inconsistent with any provisions of the Company’s bylaws that are applicable to the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee.

C. AUTHORITY AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. General.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall discharge its responsibilities, and shall assess the information provided to it by the Company's management and others, in accordance with its business judgment.

2. Board and Committee Membership.

(a) Selection of Director Nominees. Except where the Company is legally required by contract, bylaw or otherwise to provide third parties with the right to nominate directors, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall be responsible for (a) identifying individuals qualified to become Board members, consistent with criteria approved by the Board, and (b) recommending to the Board the nominees for election as directors at any meeting of stockholders and the persons to be elected by the Board to fill any vacancies on the Board. In making such recommendations, the Committee shall consider candidates proposed by stockholders. The Committee shall review and evaluate information available to it regarding candidates proposed by stockholders and shall apply the same criteria, and shall follow substantially the same process in considering them, as it does in considering other candidates. The Committee may adopt, and periodically review and revise, as it deems appropriate, procedures regarding director candidates proposed by stockholders.

(b) Criteria for Selecting Directors. The criteria to be used by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee in recommending directors and by the Board in nominating directors are as set forth in the Company's corporate governance guidelines.

(c) Search Firms. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall have the sole authority to retain and terminate any search firm to be used to identify director nominees, including sole authority to approve the search firm's fees and other retention terms. The Committee is empowered, without further action by the Board, to cause the Company to pay the compensation of any search firm engaged by the Committee.

(d) Board Committees. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall be responsible for recommending to the Board the directors to be appointed to each standing committee of the Board. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall periodically review the composition of each Board Committee and make recommendations to the Board for changes or rotation of committee members, the creation of additional Board committees, or the dissolution of Board committees.

(e) Request Director Resignations Pursuant to Corporate Governance Guidelines. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall recommend whether or not the Board should request the resignation of a director from the Board, in accordance with the Company's corporate governance guidelines.

3. Corporate Governance

(a) Corporate Governance Guidelines. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall develop and recommend to the Board corporate governance guidelines applicable to the Company. The Committee shall, from time to time as it deems appropriate, review and reassess the adequacy of such corporate governance guidelines and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.

(b) Board Leadership Structure. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall periodically review the Board's leadership structure to assess whether it is appropriate given the specific characteristics and circumstances of the Company.

4. Evaluation of the Board

(a) Evaluation of the Board. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall be responsible for overseeing a periodic self-evaluation of the Board to determine whether it and its committees are functioning effectively.

(b) Additional Duties. In addition to the duties and responsibilities expressly delegated to the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee in this Charter, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may exercise any other powers and carry out any other responsibilities consistent with this Charter, the purposes of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, the Company's bylaws and applicable Nasdaq rules.

D. PROCEDURES AND ADMINISTRATION

1. Meetings. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall meet as often as it deems necessary in order to perform its responsibilities. The Committee may also act by unanimous written consent in lieu of a meeting. The Committee shall keep such records of its meetings as it shall deem appropriate.

2. Subcommittees. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may form and delegate authority to one or more subcommittees (including a subcommittee consisting of a single member) as it deems appropriate from time to time under the circumstances.

3. Reports to the Board. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall report regularly to the Board.

4. Charter. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall, from time to time as it deems appropriate, review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.

5. Independent Advisors. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is authorized, without further action by the Board, to engage such independent legal and other advisors as it deems necessary or appropriate to carry out its responsibilities. Such independent advisors may be the regular advisors to the Company. The Committee is empowered, without further action by the Board, to cause the Company to pay the compensation of such advisors as established by the Committee.

6. Investigations. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall have the authority to conduct or authorize investigations into any matters within the scope of its responsibilities as it shall deem appropriate, including the authority to request any officer, employee or advisor of the Company to meet with the Committee or any advisors engaged by the Committee.

7. Self-Evaluation. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall periodically evaluate its own performance.
